GLAM Garome

INTRODUCES ITS NEW RANGE

Beau Monde chic

A range especially created for those who express their individuality through the scent they leave in their trail.

Coco Chanel, the one and only, used to say« A woman without a perfume has no future »

Choosing a fragrance to make it one's own is to reclaim one's individuality, to establish a sensual signature. Those fragrances blends, also called "skin perfumes" change to adapt to each skin type accentuating certain notes rather than others according to the skin which wears it. Never totally the same but never completely other, like the Woman, this range mirrors the eternal yet changing essence of Timeless Womanhood.
Beau Monde perfumes are personality fragrances, signatures as unique as each and any of us.
